B. NATURE OF THE CASE

1) Briefly state the background of your case.

Defendants worked together concealing facts and perjuring reports concerning the drowning death of my 2yr old daughter in a fellow Metro officers pool. The defendants use false names on reports and fix the scene while maliciously pursuing criminal charges against the mother and I in a attempt to protect Detective Matthew Jugodka from civil liability.

C. CAUSE OF ACTION

COUNT I

The following civil rights has been violated: Right to due process and equal protection has Fguaranteed by the Fourteenth Amendment was violated

Supporting Facts: [Include all fact you consider important. State the facts clearly, in your own words, and without citing legal authority or argument. Be sure you describe exactly what each specific defendant (by name) did to violate your rights].

October 17 2013 Detective Matthew Jagodka found my 2 yr old daughter floating beneath the solar cover of his pool located in the backyard of the home he was renting at 7742 Morningcove ct. He pulls her from the water and runs out front into the street were the child's mother had been frantically searching for her. Det. Jagodka brings the mother the body of her child. His wife Heather Jagodka calls 911 initiating Event #131017-3204. She relays instructions to do CPR to neighbors who perform CPR until paramedics arrive. As the mother is being transported via ambulance with the lifeless body of her child to Centennial Hills hospital where she would later be pronounced dead. Metro arrive at the scene and make contact with their fellow officer Det. Jagodka. They realize that our 2 yr old child was able to gain access to Det. Jagodka's backyard pool area where she lost her life, by simply walking between the widely spaced bars on the southside gate. (Gates securing pools are required to have bars spaced no more than four inches apart to prevent child drownings) Det. Jagodka and his fellow officers attempt to conceal his in faulty southside gate by having it fixed with the installation of wiremesh across it widely space bars before taking photos of the scene. Det. Jogodha and his fellow officers also attempt to conceal his involvement by using the identity of David Davis and Kari Davis in place of Matthew Jogodha's and Heather Jogodha's true identity on reports and recorded audio statements.

Detective Hernandez conducts recorded audio statements with his fellow officer Detective Matthew Jogodha and Heather Jogodha using the names David and Kari Davis. Det. Jogodha does not disguise his voice on the recording, inadvertently makes references to working as a detective and gives the names and birthdates of his biological daughters Emma and Malia Jogodha while posing as being a David Davis.
(Review on Youtube: 03 David Davis statement October 17 2013)

Officer Schmitt perjures his official report by using the names DOBs and ssn's of David Paul Davis and Kari Frances Davis (A married couple who reside in Terre Haute IN) in place of Matthew Jogodha and Heather Jogodha (Daughter of Metro area command Lt. Snodgrass)
Off. Schmitt also fabricates written statements. Using his print style writing he fabricates a David Davis statement. Using his cursive style writing he fabricates a Kari Davis statement. He also fabricates signatures on each statement and a consent to search form using his district style writing (See in Exhibit A)

Cynthia Sauchak perjures her official report by using the names David Davis and Kari Davis in place of Matthew Jogodha and Heather Jogodha. Sauchak also conceals CSI reports and photos done by CSI Amanda Wright documenting the southside gate as being the point of entry to Det. Jogodha's backyard. Sauchak does not submit CSI Amanda Wright's photo's and measurements of the southside gate's widely spaced bars. Sauchak instead submits photo's taken of the scene after the southside gate has been fixed with wiremesh installed across its bars and a large trailer has been parked blocking the northside gate from closing to make it appear as the point of entry. (See in Exhibit A)

Det. Jogodha participates in recorded statement using the name David Davis to conceal his identity and works with fellow officers fixing the scene on his property to conceal southside gate. Before his fellow officers arrive Det. Jogodha calls 911, identifies himself as Det. Jogodha and identifies his wife Heather Jogodha as being the one who made the initiating 911 call. Det. Jogodha tells dispatcher to have officers contact him if they want to get statements.
(Review on Youtube: 02 911 call October 17 2013 (First call is Heather Jogodha's initiating 911 call, last call is Matthew Jogodha's 911 call))

After his fellow officers arrive Det. Jogodha and give recorded statements, using the same distinct voices recorded on their 911 calls, however now their identifying themselves as David Davis and Kari Davis.

Review on Youtube: 03 David Davis statement October 17 2013

01 Kari Davis statement October 17 2013

The defendants conspired together violating my rights with malice intent and reckless disregard for due process, equal protection of law and their oaths as officers use false names and fix the scene while maliciously pursuing criminal charges against the mother and I in a attempt to protect their fellow officer from civil liability for the wrongful death of a child due to an inadequately fenced pool.

The child's mother Sandra Schams and I have reported these officers actions to Sargent Warren at Metro Internal Affairs. Sgt. Warren asked us to email her evidence, assured us she would begin an investigation rightaway and contact us shortly. After Emailing Sgt. Warren photo's and audio of Det. Jagodha along with a long list of witnesses who identify him as the man who carried our child from his backyard and came to court to testify as David Davis. We never heard from Sgt. Warren again. All our follow up calls were fielded by the Internal Affairs secretary who would place us on hold then come back on the line to tell us Sgt. Warren was unavailable, didn't know when or if she would become available, and when we would ask to speak with a supervisor we were told there was no one else we could speak to. After months without a single call being returned we came to the grim realization that even Internal Affairs was going to protect their fellow officers.

Stating it briefly these officers malice actions have caused Sandra Schams and I unimaginable pain and suffering as well as extreme mental distress in the wake of our 2 yr old daughter's death.

Note: Detective Matthew Jagodha and Heather Jagodha currently reside at 3701 Glen Bridge way. Attorney Steven Ried went to this address and met face to face with Matthew and Heather Jagodha who presented themselves as David and Kari Davis. Photos of the Jagodhas can be found on their facebook accounts they created using the names David and Kari Davis. Also see teenchallenge.net.

Narrative

That on 10-17-13 at approx 17:30 hrs Officer J Schmitt P # 3411 was dispatched on event # 131017-3097 at the location of 7731 Morning Cove Ct, LVN 89431, reference a missing child.

The details of the call were the approx 2 yr old child Chloe Vidal was last seen at 09:00 hrs the same morning and that the P/R's ex-boyfriend Frank Vidal was watching the child and had fell asleep. The P/R Sandra Scharas had returned from work and discovered the child missing. A front door was opened. 911 call

While en-route a subsequent event came out right down the street, event # 131017-3204 at [REDACTED] reference a sick or injured person. 911

The details of this call was the accidental drowning of a approx 18 month old child and that subjects were doing CPR on the child in the middle of the street. Medical had been requested and it did not appear the child was breathing. It was confirmed at the scene this was the missing child Chloe of the original event.

Upon my arrival at the above location Fire Rescues # 41 had already loaded the child into the back of their vehicle and stated they were headed to Centennial Hospital. It appeared the mother of the child was in the front seat of their vehicle.

I subsequently came in contact with witnesses Kari and David Davis who reside at [REDACTED] who told me that when they returned home they noticed a disturbance in front of their residence and it was discovered subjects were looking for a missing child. Kari checked their pool area he noticed the pool cover folded over. Upon closer inspection he saw a leg, ran over and pulled a child out of the pool and carried the child as fast as he could into the front street for help. Where several other neighbors conducted CPR on the child until FD responded. (Voluntary statements and a consent to search were completed at the scene)

Witness Nicole Brown, who was visibly shaken, was standing in the street and I went over and asked her if she was involved in the incident. She stated she was in the neighborhood when she noticed a female (Sandra Scharas) franticly searching for a missing child. She allowed Sandra got into a verbal argument with this subject and subsequently told Nicole that was the ex-boyfriend who was suppose to be watching the child. The male fled the area in a black SUV type vehicle. Nicole had state to Sandra she should go back to her residence and recheck her residence to confirm the child was not there. When doing so, that is the moment when Kari and David noticed the disturbance, David Neighbor Alecia Rangel had come outside, seen the incident unfolding and ran over to assist in doing CPR on the child. She over heard Sandra talking on the phone stating [REDACTED] (Voluntary statement obtained) and said that there was a two year old missing. Um, so I ran in the other room. I have a two and a five year old, so my heart sank too. Um, and she told me that the mother had told her the two year old had been, um, that the mom had told her that she left her work this morning and had just gotten home and that the front door was open and the dad had passed out in the garage. Um, so I went and put my shoes on and ran out the door, got the stroller out. I put my two year old in it and grabbed the five year old and all four of us went walking through the neighborhood. And we were, uh, one street up when my wife said, "You know, when I let the dog out when we got home tonight, there was a Lunchable in the back yard. And we haven't had - I haven't bought Lunchable's in a - over a month." And um, she said, "We need to go back home and check the back yard." And we came back and I asked her to keep the kids back and I would just run back there real quick, and I was - I ran, uh, I went to the back of the pool because I had noticed on the right side of the pool there - there was 2 spots where the cover was kind of flipped up a little bit.

Q: Mm-hm.

A: And usually it's laying perfectly flat. And um, so I looked under the first part where it was lifted up, and there was nothing there and I went back by the water fall and lifted it up and there was nothing there. And, um, I don't know. I just thought to myself, I don't know, I got down and looked...

On 10-17-2013 this writer met with LVMPD Cyndi Sauchek in person at Centennial Hills ER room # 38. Present in the room was the Coroner, CSI, A/N Sauchek, Sm and this writer. Sm was lying on her back naked except for pink summer sandals that were still strapped to her feet. They were worn on the soles. The mother had been at work all day. She came home around 5:30pm and found the father asleep in the garage on the sofa. She could not find the child. She woke up the father who told the mother he last saw the child between 9am - 10am this morning watching TV in the living room. The father told the mother he "passed out" and doesn't know anything else. The parents started looking for the child. The father and the mother separately called the police and reported the child missing.

CSI reported talking to the neighbor that found Sm. He stated he and his wife and child were coming home for the evening around 5:30 or 6:00pm. They had been gone all day as both adults in the home work. That as they were going into their house Sm had been around the cul de sac asking if anyone had seen her daughter as she was missing. He went in his house to let his dogs out in the backyard. He noticed a empty "lunchables" container on his patio and that prompted him to look around his yard for the missing child as they do not have lunchables at their home. The neighbor relayed he was looking around his backyard. He had winterized his swimming pool by covering it with a pool cover. He looked in the direction of the pool and at first nothing was unusual then he saw the child's foot in the corner of the pool sticking out from under the pool cover. The neighbor relayed that he rushed to the child and pulled her out of the water, he didn't want his 5yr old child to see what was happening so he took subject minor to the front yard and his wife called 911. He and another neighbor attempted CPR until the ambulance arrived. He doesn't know the child or the parents.

INITIATED EVENT #: 3204

The parents home is the corner home in a cul de sac. The residence the child was found was across the street and four houses down towards the end of the cul de sac. The gate to the backyard sits back from the front yard and was propped open by a piece of wood. It is theorized that the child may have squeezed through the gap in the gate to gain access to the backyard.

CSI reported no clothing was recovered so far. The child was transported in the ambulance in a towel provided by the neighbor wearing only her sandals.

2 Q No pants?

3 A No pants, no diaper.

4 Q Did you see pants or a diaper in the pool?

5 A No.

6 Q And how -- what was the potential access
7 to the yard?8 A It would have been difficult. The only
9 thing I can -- I have to reference is my own two year old
10 would have struggled to get back there, but it could 11 happen.12 Q And how -- what possibility -- what 13 possible ways were there?

14 A Just through the one side gate.

15 Q And what was the issue with the side gate?

16 A No real issue. It just -- it's in the 17 sand by two -- or in the rocks by two poles that slide down
18 at the bottom, so it could have been pulled open.19 Q Would that be the only possible way of 20 getting in the backyard?

21 A The only possible way.

8 Q Mr. Davis, you performed CPR on Khloe for 9 a short period of time?

10 A Yes.

11 Q How long was it that you performed CPR?

12 A Probably only about a minute.

13 Q About a minute.

14 A And then the lady, who you say is an RN,

15 took over?

16 A Yes.

17 Q Okay.

18 You said that there's only one possible

19 way for a child to have gotten into your backyard. Is that 20 what you said before?

21 A Yes.

22 Q Is there a gate on the other side of the 23 house?

24 A Yes, there is.

25 Q Is it possible that one could have popped

4 that it was possible for a child to go through on the other
5 side.6 Q So there were two gates, one on each side
7 of your house?

8 A Yes,

9 Q Okay.

10 You said that your wife noticed a
11 lunchable on the back porch, right?

12 A Yes.

13 Q How long was it between when she noticed

Neighbors will tell you trailer was brought latter night after incident. It's COMMON knowledge amongst witnesses and neighbors that child got threw bars of Southside gate. Day of incident, witness Mike Vidal, took photo's of gate before the wire mesh was installed

If backed just 5 inches more, gate could close. Photo's show clear path. 5 inch gap not convincing enough? They decide to make 10 inch gap before taking measurements

DETAILS I was outside with my children when a SUV drove up and asked if we had seen a 2 year old girl with dark curly hair. I went inside and got my husband so that we could help search for the girl on foot. Shortly after I recalled seeing a white hat was not ours on our back porch when I let our dog out and told my husband to go check the backyard. I had not even got back to my house when I saw my husband running with the child. The child was brought to the mother and another neighbor began CPR.

Defendant's family Outside the courtroom coerce

Defendant's brother Mike Vidal to give up documents

possession of documents defendant had mailed him

Inside the court they make the defendant's family & supporters (who were not witnesses to the case) Leave the courtroom. They are told that they will not be allowed to return

Witnesses of this Misconduct:

Gaylene Crayton 702 526 6500

Mike Vidal 702 371-6550

Sandra Scharas 702 416-4290

They take the defendant's legal paper work showing Detective Matthew Jagodka's Involvement in this case. Then they revoke the defendant's communication with the outside 11:00AM 5 Today is the date and time for the preliminary hearing. State's ready to proceed. We expect you to be ready to proceed;

6 MR. BOLEY: I am ready to proceed.

7 THE DEFENDANT: All right, let's do it.

11:00AM 10 MS. HOLTHUS: Judge, I'm going to ask -- he's got some documents, I'm going to ask if the Court can take those into custody at this point. I'm not sure what is going on with them.

11:00AM 15 THE COURT: All right, I warned you, okay.

16 THE DEFENDANT: I'm not --

17 THE COURT: If you want to, we will tape you right now.

18 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir.

19 THE COURT: What does he have?

20 THE DEFENDANT: Five legal documents from my discovery.

21 THE COURT: Well, I want to see what the legal documents are. I want to make sure there are no phone numbers. I want to make sure nobody's addresses are in there.

PATSY K. SMITH, OFFICIAL COURT REPORTER
(702) 671-3795

1 MS. HOLTHUS: My understanding is he was 2 trying to get those to his family members. I can tell you 3 I interviewed the family members this morning. I think we 4 need to have all the witnesses leave the courtroom, please. 5 He is disseminating discovery, including ^{Family} ~~Personal~~ 6 witnesses' phone numbers. Our witnesses are getting 7 contacted on numbers that only come through the discovery 8 and they are coming from the detention center.

9 THE DEFENDANT: And supposedly these 10 witnesses aren't even witnesses in this case, so why is it 11 now that these persons are getting contacted if they are 12 not even involved in the case? How is that possible or is 13 now the State making admissions that people not supposedly 14 involved are actually involved in this case and has 15 falsified all the information in discovery.

16 MS. HOLTHUS: Our Abuse & Neglect 17 Specialist, Ms. Sauchak, who is working on this case, has 18 been sitting in court this morning and the defendant is 19 giving her a threat by --

20 THE DEFENDANT: No, no --

21 THE REPORTER: Hey, I can't take you both.

22 THE DEFENDANT: Sorry.

23 MS. HOLTHUS: He is dragging his finger 24 across his throat in a slitting motion and pointed to 25 documents that he has in his possession.

PATSY K. SMITH, OFFICIAL COURT REPORTER
(702) 671-3795

1 THE DEFENDANT: I was pointing to her name, 2 on the paperwork with the falsified information. She knows 3 that. She told her, I saw it while she told it to you. 4 This is a lie. I did not put my finger across my neck. I 5 showed her name on the paper, yes. I slapped my finger 6 back and forth on her name, not the neck, but she duly 7 swears that the testimony in that police report is under 8 truth;

9 She is under oath and has falsified the 10 names and information in that document and I was pointing 11 to her where she swears under oath that what she says in 12 that document is truthful. I did not put no finger sliding 13 on my neck. It was on her to swear under the penalty of 14 perjury under her name. Yes, I did show her I had her 15 document with all her lies.

16 I'm not acting up, your Honor. I just 17 think this does need to be addressed. It's very --

18 MS. HOLTHUS: I'm going to ask that his 19 phone privileges at the jail be revoked and restricted and 20 can only talk to counsel --

21 MR. BOLEY: And, your Honor --

22 MS. HOLTHUS: -- and visitation.

23 THE DEFENDANT: Your Honor, I would see no 24 reason to do so. I haven't made any threats. I haven't 25 caused anybody hardship. Nothing, nothing. Nobody has had

1 hardship but me and now my poor baby's mother, who is being
 2 put all through this, an innocent woman who just lost her
 3 child grieving.

4 MR. BOLEY: And, your Honor --

5 THE DEFENDANT: I feel guilty for what
 6 happened. You know, nothing is going to change that I was 7 there.

8 MR. BOLEY: I wouldn't say that.

9 THE DEFENDANT: Regardless of that, I have 10 nothing to hide about me falling asleep. It's an accident.
 11 I didn't mean my child to walk outside into Detective
 12 Chotoba's (phonetic) pool. I didn't mean for that to 13 happen, but the fact after you guys -- after the detective
 14 came to the scene and the other detectives got together --
 15 get together and do this, that's not fair. That's not fair
 16 to cover a falsified report.

17 THE COURT: All right, I have got a
 18 voluntary statement by a witness. For some reason, in 19 pencil, is his date of birth, race, height, color of hair,
 20 home address, work address, that he is male, and his phone
 21 number have been written in pencil on this piece of paper.

22 THE DEFENDANT: It's actually pen, but,
 23 yeah, that's what I got off Davis -- David's voluntary
 24 handwritten statement. That's all the information off of 25 that end. I just put it on that. It's the statement of

PATSY K. SMITH, OFFICIAL COURT REPORTER

1 Davis.

2 THE COURT: You are not allowed to have
 3 that information.

4 THE DEFENDANT: Well, I have it. I have
 5 the handwritten statements. The handwritten statements
 6 clearly have height, you know, race, dah-dah-dah, and so
 7 forth. It just wasn't put in on the statement, so I filled
 8 it in right there.

9 MS. HOLTHUS: Those were the documents
 10 that he was attempting to give to his family members here
 11 this morning. He was stopped by the marshal and he had 12 previously mailed similar documentation having other
 13 witnesses' phone numbers on it and those were the witnesses
 14 that got phone calls.

15 THE DEFENDANT: I don't have --
 16 MS. HOLTHUS: -- from the detention

17 center.
 18 THE DEFENDANT: I don't have nothing that 19 wasn't blacked out. Whatever sensitive information was 20 blacked out, it was blacked out. Whatever wasn't, it
 21 wasn't. So I mean --

22 MS. HOLTHUS: It doesn't matter what he 23 has, Judge.

24 THE DEFENDANT: I'm going to share my case
 25 with my family.

PATSY K. SMITH, OFFICIAL COURT REPORTER
 (702) 671-3795.

Page 15

1 MS. HOLTHUS: It's about what he is doing
 2 with the information, Judge. He's reaching out, in our
 3 position, intimidating witnesses.

4 THE DEFENDANT: I haven't intimidated or
 5 talked to anybody.

6 MR. BOLEY: Frank, quiet.
 7 What the State knows is that a detective
 8 from Metro got calls from the Las Vegas jail. They do not 9 know if Frank or a lot of people in that jail would have 10 incentive to try to get a hold of this police officer.

11 THE COURT: It's simple. Those calls have 12 unique identifiers on them.

13 MR. BOLEY: If being --

14 THE COURT: When you are going to jail,
 15 when anybody calls, it's specific to that person, okay. It
 16 could not be anyone else but him because that's what goes
 17 through the phone. It's his identifier.

18 THE DEFENDANT: Well, does it say that?
 19 Do we even know or was it somebody else who actually has a
 20 different name?

21 THE COURT: All right, first of all, given
 22 the information that's in here, I'm taking this away.

23 Second, your phone privileges are revoked.
 24 Your mail privileges are revoked. The only person you can 25 talk to is your attorney.

PATSY K. SMITH, OFFICIAL COURT REPORTER

1 THE DEFENDANT: How are my mail privileges
 2 going to be revoked?

3 THE COURT: You can't send out your mail
 4 to anybody but your attorney.

5 THE DEFENDANT: But he is not going to
 6 give anything to my family.

7 THE COURT: There is a reason for that.

8 THE DEFENDANT: This is further injustice,
 9 unbelievably. There is no reason that I can't share

10 documents with my family or any letters with my family for 11 that fact. You guys have already cut me off to the outside
 12 world enough as it is, scared my wife, mother of my child,
 13 not to be speaking with me, and you got an innocent woman
 14 to plead guilty to something that she is not guilty of just 15 by scaring her with prison time. It's not fair.

16 THE COURT: All right, that's the Court's
 17 decision. We are taking your legal papers at this point.
 18 No more outside phone calls. The only person you can call
 19 is your attorney. The only person you can send mail to is 20 your attorney.

21 THE DEFENDANT: That is complete -- that
